

Annex 1
Schedule of Tariff Commitments
Australia

Headnote to the HS 2017 Schedule (*)

1. Australia shall reduce and eliminate tariffs for certain specified tariff lines within HS8703 for goods manufactured in Indonesia and Thailand in accordance with Appendix 1 (Indonesia) and Appendix 3 (Thailand). During the application of the relevant Appendix, the Tariff Commitments in the Schedule for the corresponding tariff lines in HS8703 shall not apply to goods manufactured in Indonesia or Thailand, including such goods exported to and subsequently re-exported from another Party (see note 5 below).

2. Appendix 1 to this Schedule sets out the Tariff Commitments for specified tariff lines in HS8703 that shall apply to goods manufactured in Indonesia, including such goods exported to and subsequently re-exported from another Party.

[3. Appendix 2 no longer has application.] (*)

4. Appendix 3 to this Schedule sets out the Tariff Commitments for specified tariff lines in HS8703 that shall apply to goods manufactured in Thailand, including such goods exported to and subsequently re-exported from another Party.

5. Determination of whether a good is manufactured in Indonesia or Thailand shall be in accordance with Chapter 1 (Rules of Origin) of Specific Annex K of the International Convention on the Simplification and Harmonization of Customs Procedures. Goods of HS8703 exported from Indonesia or Thailand and subsequently re-exported from another Party under a Back-to-Back Certificate of Origin shall be considered to have been manufactured in the country which issued the original Certificate of Origin and shall be subject to the tariff commitments for that country as set out in this Schedule or the relevant Appendix.

(*) Appendix 2 that was included in the HS 2012 Schedule no longer has application from 1 January 2017. From that date the tariff commitments applicable to the specified goods of HS8703 manufactured in Malaysia will have phased to 0% and the tariff commitments set out in Australia's Schedule of Tariff Commitments in Annex 1 shall apply to goods manufactured in Malaysia and meeting the rules of origin requirements of Chapter 3 of the Agreement.
